PUBLIC SPEAKS: Kim Bell expressed concern about public housing and the Black community. She suggested an amendment to the Ordinance regarding celebratory gunfire. She feels that the Mayor should explain to Marquetta Williams why Officer Huber is still working. Skylark Bruce said that the character of public officials is "putrid." She believes that instead of being complacent, they should be offering help and support to Marquetta Williams. She wants to see better policies in place. Jolanda Jackson said that Officer Huber did not comply with seven out of the eight demands listed in "8 Can't Wait." She said that racism is a public health crisis, and she would like to see everyone working together to solve these issues. Jason Cousins demanded justice for the Williams Family and said that he will fight until there is change.
