OLD BUSINESS

PRESIDENT PRO TEM DOUGHERTY: We have none this evening.

PUBLIC SPEAKS

PRESIDENT PRO TEM DOUGHERTY: Now under Public Speaks. We have one tonight. Henry Preston please.

HENRY PRESTON: Good evening. My name is Henry Preston. I live at 326 31st Street NW, Canton. On March 5th I observed two city employees performing recycle pickup duties in the front of my property. Their teamwork performance was stellar. The man picking up the recycle bins jumps off the truck at exactly the right time just before the trucks stop. The truck driver, the pickup man picks up the recycle bin, gives it a slight shake, sets it down upside down so that snow, rain or dog pee will not accumulate inside the bin. The truck is stopped for less than 5 seconds and off to the next stop. The bin pickup man signals the driver when to move on and jumps back on the truck. His movements are smooth, even and precise without redundant or wasteful motion which makes the job look easy. Anybody who has performed a time and motion study on the task of running, jumping off, on and off the truck, picking up and dumping the recycle bins for hours know that this is not an easy task. I am here tonight to let these, those two recycle employees know that I appreciate their stellar performance in carrying out their duties and that enriches my life living in Canton. Not having to take the time of cleaning up the bin, makes repetitive chores simpler. One of my video surveillance cameras captured that event and it's very difficult to actually articulate the timing of these two recycle employees and the performance of their duties so I have created a DVD to show with Mr. Bartos so he in turn can share the precision performance of these two employees with their supervisor. In that, they can be recognized for their stellar performance. Last week we heard about, I think it was the term, what was it called, class act. This team was a class act. I mean I've looked at it. When I first saw them I was glad I had my surveillance camera turned and I got a good movie of it and when you look at the rest, these are the best. Thank you.

PRESIDENT PRO TEM DOUGHERTY: Thank you. *(APPLAUSE)INFORMAL RESOLUTIONS
